Dear Sir or Madam

On 30 July 2011 your newspaper published an article about notable social activist John Fernandez. In your article Mr John is portrayed as greedy and corrupt. I want to bring it to your kind attention that that is not true.

I have known John since our school days, and I can tell you that he is an honest person who deeply cares for the poor and the needy. Even as a student he used to actively engage in social work. And that is the reason why he decided to work for an NGO after completing his management studies. If money was his priority, he could have opted for a job with a multinational company. Quite a few MNCs were interested in hiring him. But he didn't do that. Instead, he chose to live and work for the under privileged in the society.

I am sure his growing popularity as a social activist hasn't gone down well with some politicians and they are the ones spreading these false stories. A respected newspaper like yours should have checked twice before buying these rumors.

I am requesting you to republish this article with all inaccuracies corrected. I think the least you should do is to publish a public apology to Mr John for defaming him in this way.

Expecting prompt action,
Aditi Menon
